The patriarch of the Kent family was Zenas Kent, who established the family’s business and land holdings in the area. From these holdings his grandson William donated the first 53 acres which comprised the original Kent State campus not only to symbolize our commitment to our dining guests, but also in honor of the family’s vision and generosity, without which, Kent State University, and indeed our hotel would not exist.

In a manner Zenas would have approved, we’ve created a unique offering of delectable appetizers, salads, entrees and lighter fare. When we decided to open Zenas, we knew we had to break the mold of mediocrity. We needed to go above and beyond the “old standbys”; feature local growers and vendors wherever possible and create a sumptuous menu that would resonate with local and visiting customers alike. Perfect for a business lunch, a family gathering or a romantic rendezvous, you’ll find Zenas is the perfect blend of culinary delights and sophisticated, yet relaxed environs.

Whatever you fancy, you’ll find it here at Zenas. Fresh, expertly prepared and graciously served.
